ICE WaRM Short Courses

Welcome to ICE WaRM's 2012 Short Course Programme.

Once again we are delighted to host this industry-led training supported by so many dedicated presenters.

"Now in its fifth year, the ICE WaRM Short Course Programme is undergoing significant growth. The programme is designed to close the gaps between science, policy, education and practice."

Richard Hopkins, Chief Executive

"ICE WaRM's courses build skills and knowledge for organisations and also provide professional development for career advancement."

Trevor Pillar, National Partnerships Manager
